Weekly Newsletter: 28th April 2023

Learning Power of the Week: Questioning & reasoning

- Ask questions of yourself and others
- Make links with other learning—use what you already know
- Consider different points of view
- Dive beneath the surface to see more and get the truth

Question everything.

A Big Shout Out

Attendance

A big well done to our Year 3 class this week who have been in school every day and achieved 100% attendance for the second week in a row. They have chosen to play on the Gymnastics apparatus next week as their 100% attendance treat.

Attendance

Our attendance target for each class in school is 97%+ each week.

Our attendance has dipped significantly.

Let's aim for 100% attendance during the Summer Term!

Please make every effort to get your child into school

P.E. Kits

Children are attending school without the correct uniform. Children must wear the correct uniform and suitable footwear at all times. Parents of those children who do not attend school in the correct uniform will be contacted and asked to bring the correct items to school. Children are now able to wear their Summer Uniform.

Save the Date

5/5/23 Coronation Event afternoon for children. The children will have a party lunch on the playground. (Weather pending) They will then complete various activities in the afternoon. Children will be able to wear their own clothes for this day and can wear something red, white and/or blue. See separate letter on ParentApp.

Notices

End of the School Day

Please ensure all children and parents leave the school playground promptly at the end of the day. The After School Club use the playground and are unable to go out until the playground is empty and the gates are locked. There are also parents waiting for the car park to be opened so that they can drive out.

Summer Uniform

Please ensure children are wearing the correct footwear (black school shoes) with their school uniform.
